Music of the Night

SATURDAY, OCT. 30, 2004, 7:30 P.M.
VON BRAUN CENTER - CONCERT HALL

~ Sponsorship Available ~

The Reluctant Dragon has delighted young and old alike with its tale of the lazy dragon who shows the townspeople that they shouldn't be prejudiced against dragons or, for that matter, people who are different. Chorus selections will include a medley from Phantom of the Opera and music by our special guests, the Lee High School Concert Choir. This is a concert for the whole family to enjoy!

Concert No. 2

Making Spirits Bright

SATURDAY, DEC. 4, 2004, 7:30 PM
VON BRAUN CENTER - CONCERT HALL

Sponsored by: LOCKHEED-MARTIN

Featured work will be Rutter's exciting Magnificat, based on Luke 1:46-55, which the composer describes as "a poetic outpouring of praise, joy, and trust in God." Also included will be songs of the holiday season and a carol sing-along. The Huntsville Community Children's Chorus (HC3), directed by Anne Chelekis, will join us in "making spirits bright."

SATURDAY, MARCH 5, 2005, 7:30 PM

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH (600 Governors Drive)

Sponsored by: A FRIEND OF THE CHORUS

Randall Thompson's Peaceable Kingdom is a benchmark in American a cappella choral literature for its colorful and expressive text painting, mastery of compositional technique, and broad emotional scope. The work emerged from the composer's impressions after viewing a painting by Edward Hicks entitled "The Peaceable Kingdom." The painting depicts and quotes Isaiah 11:6-9: "And the wolf will dwell with the lamb ..."

Mozart Requiem

Sunday, Jan. 16, at 3:00 pm

VBC Concert Hall

Members of the Huntsville Community Chorus (HCC) will also be performing the Mozart Requiem with the Huntsville Symphony Orchestra (HSO) on Sunday, Jan. 16, at 3:00 pm, in the VBC Concert Hall. HCC Conductor Billy Orton has been asked by the HSO to select and prepare the choral group for this performance. He will be utilizing a number of HCC members for this well-known masterpiece of choral/orchestral repertoire.
